

THEATRE ROYAL, CASTLE-ST.

(LESSEE—MRS. SLATER.)

This elegant bijou Theatre, the real original shop for Fun, Quips, Cracks, Whims, Oddities and Drolleries for Merry Masters and Mistresses, will RE-OPEN for its usual Winter Season of One Evening,

On Thursday, January 7th, 1864,

WITH

A GRAND AMATEUR

DRAMATIC PERFORMANCE

Under the Patronage of the LAMA of THIBET and the GRAND CHAM of TARTARY.

For the benefit and amusement of Society in general and nobody in particular.
The Services of those popular Favourites

Miss CELIA RATLES and Miss ROSA MAY have again been retained by the Management at immense expense.

FIRST APPEARANCE ON ANY STAGE OF

Miss NEINA RATLES & Mdle. BERTHELINA D'OBI

THE KIDDLE-A-WINK ! THE KIDDLE-A-WINK ! THE KIDDLE-A-WINK !

has been engaged by the management regardless of all pecuniary considerations, and is being brought down by Mrs. Lirriper, lodged in a tooth box.

THE GHOST

has also been engaged for this occasion only, and Messrs. Sharp, Dicks, and Pepper Pot will put him through his most horrible feats to the terrific delight of the spectators.

N.B.—The Management regret to say that Kiddle-a-Wink was incautiously allowed to see the Ghost. His Kiddle-a-Winkship was much terrified, and retired so completely within himself as to become invisible to mortal eye, having however first blown the Ghost out.

The Performance will commence with "A Shilling Day at the Exhibition," to be followed by a Charade Comedy, written expressly for this occasion. The whole to conclude with a laughable Burlesque, never before produced on any stage, entitled "Bombastes Furioso."

A SHILLING DAY AT THE EXHIBITION.
